A fabulous traditionally built Cotswold home on the edge of the village

Description

Chaddesworth House is a beautiful traditionally built Cotswold stone home. Recently completed in 2024, the house has been thoughtfully designed to provide practical contemporary living space combined with Cotswold charm and character. Finished to a very high spec, the house offers generous proportions with bright and light rooms and cosy corners. The house, with underfloor heating throughout, has an A-Rated EPC and has been designed with ultra energy construction for low running costs.

The open plan kitchen/dining room is clearly the heart of the house and a wonderful room in which to entertain family and friends. Bi-folding doors lead to the terrace and garden beyond allowing for superb indoor/outdoor living in the warmer months. The kitchen is well equipped with all the necessary modern appliances and there is plenty of worktop and storage space. The kitchen island works perfectly for morning catch ups over coffee and for putting the world to rights in the evening whilst cooking up a feast.

The living room with bi-folding doors to the garden is ideal for quiet relaxing moments after a long country walk and perfect for movie nights with the family.

The utility room keeps the piles of washing out of sight and there is also a downstairs cloakroom.

The study is ideal for working from home or could equally make a superb playroom for younger children.

Upstairs comprises the master bedroom with en suite bathroom and a dressing room, three further bedrooms, one of which is en suite, and a family bathroom. All the rooms are generously proportioned and are bathed in an abundance of natural light.

Outside, the delightful landscaped garden is predominantly laid to lawn. The terrace overlooking the garden is ideal for enjoying sundowners and al fresco dining in the summer months. The gated gravel driveway offers ample parking, alongside the double garage.
